

MACM SEMINAR

“YOU OWE US MONEY: INFITXEK BIL-QORTI”

Date: Tuesday, 10th June 2025

Trident Park, Central Business District, Birkirkara

13:30 – 17:00

Agenda

Recouping money through the Law Courts

When all else fails, creditors use the Maltese Judicial System to recoup their money from their debtors. But how does the whole procedure work? What tools are available to protect the interest of the creditors?

What are the differences between:

- A Traditional Lawsuit and a Judicial Letter? Is the '166A' effective?
- Precautionary Warrant and Executive Warrant (Mandat Kawtelatorju u Mandat Ezekuttiv)?

When can a Warrant of Seizure be issued (Mandat ta' Qbid)? How does this work in practice?

What other effective tools are available to the creditor to recoup money from debtors when using the Maltese Law Courts?

Dr. Ian Barbara

Dr. Ian Barbara is an Associate at Mifsud & Mifsud Advocates, focusing on debt recovery and civil litigation. His work includes representing clients in judicial forums such as the Small Claims Tribunal, the Inferior and Superior Courts of Malta, particularly in matters of debt collection, commercial disputes, and property law. Admitted to the Maltese Bar in 2022, Dr. Barbara holds a Bachelor of Laws (Honours) and a Master of Advocacy from the University of Malta. His approach to debt recovery emphasises thorough legal analysis and a clear understanding of the procedural requirements involved in resolving disputes efficiently and effectively.
